WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Four Citizens of Wichita go for One of the Treasures of the East.

Chas. Brown, one of the burglars caught by the police at the Tremont house some time ago, and who was held for trial in the district court released on bail yesterday.

Ed. Pyle, of Goldard, was in town yesterday.

J. J. Bechtel was in from Goldard yesterday.

Telephone connection was made with Wellington last night.

Let nobody forget the Fremont hall tonight at the opera house.

Dr. Baumbach, of Tonka, Illinois, is in the city and called on the Eagle.

The track is now ready for the street cars to run to the Sandover depot.

John Armour was up from Clearwater yesterday, to have a look at the big city.

The supper for the firm's hall will be served at Gandolfo's restaurant tonight.

Red estate didn't fly off the handle at the usual gallop yesterday, whatever was the cause.

The probate judge issued a marriage license to Alfred Sings and Lillian Palmer yesterday.

J. W. Miller, vice-president of the St. Louis, Fort Scott and Wichita railroad, was in the city yesterday.

G. W. Thompson has just finished a piece of beautiful cement sidewalk for Mr. Allen on North Emporia avenue.

Miss Zimmler made a nice little dinner in real estate in his addition yesterday afternoon to $1,600.

Hon. Clara Vossenger of Cincinnati, who has been spending a few days in the city, leaves for home today.

Mr. Clark, representing the Rogers Coal Company, arrived from a business trip to Southern Kansas last evening.

The Santa Fe folks are laying new steel sixty-five pounds to the yard just north of town and putting in a foot of gravel for ballast.

The greatest trial of the season will be Mr. Peck's great lecture, "The Philosophy of Fun," at the opera house next Monday night.

Col. Fouts has been commissioned by Governor Martin delegate to the farmers' national convention which meets at Indianapolis.

Mr. Frank Hohnberg, of Florence, an old time Wichitan, was down to see his friends yesterday, and Frank has many friends in Wichita.

Wesley's Relief Corps No. 40 of the G. A. R., will hold their next regular meeting on Friday, the 20th, at 2 p. m., at Old Fellows' hall.

The total number of letters handled in the Wichita postoffice for one week ending last evening, was forty-seven thousand and twenty-eight.

The rush in the freight depots of this city just now is unprecedented. The clerks are at the depot all hours of the day and part of the night.

Two joint-owners of St. Marks, two from Clearwater and four from this city were before Justice Thomas yesterday and were all disposed of by fine.

Mr. Frank Daly, who had gone up to Marion county in the interest of the O. A. E. W., returned yesterday. He said he had talked like a magister.

Mr. John Meagher, late editor of the Jefferson City (Mo.) Tribune, who is now traveling for the Appleton's with a very fine work of art, is in the city.

Mr. M. E. Cooper, editor and proprietor of the Springfield (Mo.) News, who is a western and southern agent for the Property Press company, is in the city.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Alexander was rendered joyful yesterday afternoon by the arrival of a bouncing baby. They are congratulated.

L. H. Webb and wife, of Winfield, and Mrs. George Webb, of Stafford, Kansas, are visiting their sons, Mrs. R. L. Walker, at 82 North Lawrence avenue.

Benj. S. Hood, editor of the Littlefield (Ib.) Monitor, is in the city and called on the Eagle office, expressing great surprise at the immunity of the establishment.

Mr. Henry Evans, one of our leading reporters, is back from a trip up Salt River, as his friends express it. He feels all right now and declares he will never do it again.

The Y. M. C. A. has rented rooms over the Bank of Wichita, in the boys' building, corner Lawrence and Douglas avenue, which they expect to occupy about the first of next week.

Messrs. Kenworthy and McMurtry, traveling salesmen of the Santa Fe and Frisco railways respectively, are in town and report accounts in their usual accurate conditions at the close.

As Dr. J. C. Lindsey was going along by the corner of Market street and Douglas avenue yesterday morning, came in a man came up, grabbed the nose and called some other fellow, then ran the cane to the doctor, quite unceremoniously.

J. C. Wootton's new and handsome residence on College Hill is completed and is an ornament to that part of the city. Woodson himself built the brick which was a guarantee of a good job. B. F. Morland did the carpenter work.

S. H. George, late a clerk in the post office, who has been on a claim in Hamilton county, arrived in the city yesterday. He is highly delighted with his location, and says his comrades, John G. Pacy, has gained ten pounds in weight since he went to there.

O. C. Bailey received a hunting permit from Carl Lew, the government agent, the Cheyenne and Arapahoe agency, Indian Territory, and he will leave for the hunting grounds to-morrow, in company with three friends, all of whom anticipate a high time.

A very pleasant birthday party, coupled with the anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Farmer, was held at their residence, on the west side, last Saturday evening. A large number of friends were present and enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Chas. C. D. Perry stopped over Sunday in the city on his return from Englewood, Colorado, to his home in Chicago, where he will spend the winter. He has just completed finding his ten thousand ranch in Clark county, and it is needless to say he has not been idle during the summer.

Chas. Firebaugh has had the old house that formerly stood on the lot opposite Occidental, which he purchased recently, moved back, having the corner ready to build such a block as some firm may want, and will be ready to build by any time, as a building is required by any good business house.

W. J. Wilson and son, W. E. Wilson, merchants of Burlington, Kan., arrived in the city yesterday and made the Eagle a call. Mr. Wilson used to come here from Leavenworth about fifteen years ago, and is surprised not only at the growth of the city, but the change in the Eagle in that time.

Willie Folger, of Wellington, telephoned the following information to this office last night: "Seymour's weekly voted bonds for the Fort Smith, Wellington & Wichita railroad company, yesterday making $116,000 in all." He said that Conklin's bank at Oxford, was burned yesterday.
